This month I would like to welcome a new speaker and a new topic. Our speaker this month is Douglas M. Flinn, an associate with Sherman & Howard L.L.C. in Colorado Springs. Doug will be speaking on Construction Law.

His practice focuses on construction litigation and government contracts at the federal, state, and local levels. Doug represents a broad range of clients from small businesses to Fortune 500 companies and his practice area includes multi-jurisdiction, complex litigation, and he has experience in cases with damages in excess of $100 million.

Before joining the firm in 2001, Doug practiced for seven years as an Air Force JAG gaining extensive litigation experience in both civil and criminal cases. He was an assistant professor of law at the United States Air Force Academy where he taught contracts, criminal law, and civil litigation. Mr. Flinn received B.A. degrees in Spanish and English from Stanford University.
